

~~SECRET~~Survey of Projects on the Economy of the Soviet OrbitReport of the Department of CommerceProjects of the European Division, Office of International Trade

	Date Initiated	Completed or Planned for Completion	Type	Classification
Projects Completed or Planned for Completion Since July 1951
Soviet Orbit Iron and Steel Industry	--	July 1951	RS	Secret
Importance of Czech Trade to American Industry	--	Aug. 1951	RM	Confidential
Possible Consequences of a Cessation of U.S. Trade with the U.S.S.R.	--	Sep. 1951	RM	Confidential
Summary of data on Soviet Tin Resources	--	Aug. 1951	RM	Unclassified
Levels of Industrial Production in the U.S.S.R., 1946-50	April	Oct. 1951	RS	Unclassified
Importance of Polish Trade to American Industry	Sept.	Oct. 1951	RM	Confidential
Industrial Output in the Satellite Countries	June	Nov. 1951	RS	Unclassified
Antibiotics in the U.S.S.R.	Sept.	Oct. 1951	RM	Unclassified
Trade Agreements of the U.S.S.R.	Sept.	Nov. 1951	RS	Unclassified
The Visible Trade of the U.S.S.R. (in tables)	Sept.	Dec. 1951	RS	Unclassified
Current Soviet Trade in Raw Materials	Sept.	Jan. 1952	RS	Unclassified
Soviet Foreign Trade Policies--an Official View	Sept.	Mar. 1952	Trans- lation	Unclassified
Recent Projects Completed Before July 1951
Fishery Resources of the U.S.S.R.		May 1950	RS	Unclassified
Economic Review of Czechoslovakia, 1949		June 1950	RS	Unclassified
The U.S.S.R. - Summary of Basic Economic Information		Dec. 1950	RS	Unclassified
Poland's Foreign Trade in 1949		Dec. 1950	RS	Unclassified
Czechoslovak Foreign Trade in 1949		Dec. 1950	RS	Unclassified

*DOC Waiver Letter In ERU File*

Among the continuing research activities on the Soviet Bloc carried on in the European Division, the following may be listed as of possible interest to outside agencies:

1. Current record of Soviet Trade Agreements and Contracts
2. Record of Changes in Soviet Commercial Representation Abroad
3. Bibliography of Russian Economic Studies, by Subject
4. Current List of Sources on the Soviet Economy and Foreign Trade in English
5. Annual Production of Specified Commodities in the U.S.S.R.
6. Soviet Foreign Trade in Selected Raw Materials
7. List of Industrial Installations by City
8. File Extracts from Soviet Press and Economic Publications by Subject.

Projects of the Far Eastern Division, Office of International Trade

	Date Initiated	Completed or Planned for Completion	Type	Classification
Projects Completed or Planned for Completion since July 1951
Long-Term U.S. Trade Policy towards China	Sept.	June 1952	RS	Confidential
Analysis of China's Cotton and Cotton Textile Requirements	Sept.	Oct. 1951	RS	Confidential
Study of Transit Controls at Hong Kong	Sept.	Oct. 1951	RS	Confidential

Among the continuing research studies of the Far Eastern Division, OIT, are the following:

1. Hong Kong requirements for various U.S. products. (Commodity studies of this kind are being made in connection with U.S. export licensing operations.)
2. Derivation of Trade Statistics for Communist China.

Report of the Export Supply Divisions, Office of International Trade

Prepare, usually through task groups, research papers on the strategic value to iron curtain countries of specific commodities. These studies are used in determining the strategic-ratings classifications of commodities for use by the U.S. Government and COCOM.

~~SECRET~~

Project of the Balance of Payments Division, Office of Business Economics

Subject	Date Initiated	Completed or Planned for Completion	Type	Classification
Census of American Direct Investments in Foreign Countries	Jan. 1951	Sept. 1952	RS	Unclassified

Research of the Foreign Manpower Unit, Bureau of the Census

Work on the population and labor force of iron curtain countries by this unit is financed and guided by CIA. Presumably, it will have been reported as a CIA project. If not, [REDACTED] of CIA can provide whatever information is needed.

25X1A9a

001 1 31 1952
10-010